Additional information for you to consider when applying for jobs

Application Advice: Solent University's employability and enterprise service advises that you ensure your CV is the best it can be before you submit it. Look at our online guide or email solent.futures@solent.ac.uk for feedback. You can also access CV360 on Solent Futures Online for instant feedback 24/7. We can support you online for mock interviews, CV checks and more!

International Students: If you are a holder of a Student Visa (formerly known as Tier 4 visa) you will have certain conditions and working restrictions attached to your visa. Generally, students studying towards a degree level qualification (NQF6) or above are restricted to a maximum of 20 hours work per week during term time, which is reduced to 10 hours per week for students studying below degree level. Please check your visa for more details. It is a criminal offence to breach the conditions of your visa, and anyone found doing so by UK Visas and Immigration is likely to have their permission to stay in the UK cancelled.

Overseas Placements: If you are considering using this opportunity for a work placement that is an assessed part of your course please note, that currently due to Covid-19 Solent University are not permitting placements overseas, unless the placement is taking place in the student's country of origin, where they are currently living.

Covid 19 - Government guidelines: We would encourage you to be mindful when signing up to volunteer or work and only sign-up / apply to an opportunity you would be comfortable doing, follow government and organisational guidance and most importantly stay safe. For more information visit <https://www.gov.uk/coronavirus>

Adverts automatically sourced: Some adverts have been automatically added from an online jobs board www.indeed.co.uk and selected by the Solent Futures team as a suitable vacancy to apply. However, as it's been sourced by an external company, we are unable to edit certain job details such as closing dates and criteria. Please follow the link to the company website advert for accurate details.

Unpaid opportunities: Solent University does not endorse unpaid opportunities outside of the curriculum. However, should you decide to take on this position you need to consider your financial situation and consider how you would support yourself for the duration of the experience. If you have any questions about this opportunity, please contact employers@solent.ac.uk

Solent University has a limited funding scheme called the Unpaid Placement Support Grant to support Solent students on unpaid work experience or placement opportunities. The unpaid placement support grant is means-tested and may be available to support students who have been offered a short-term unpaid placement - find out more.
